Your Personalized Strengths Insights

What makes you stand out?

By nature, you sometimes notice that individuals or groups solicit your point of view on specific topics or issues. Perhaps they turn to you because you have specialized in certain fields. Maybe you have gained skills or gathered expertise beyond that of the average person. Driven by your talents, you might feel happier if you are busy, even if it means performing routine or mundane tasks. When you have nothing to do, perhaps you are the type of person who looks for something to do. It's very likely that you occasionally tell yourself that you are an effective mentor or trainer. Perhaps individuals benefit from the investment you make in them. Because of your strengths, you may be convinced that you are measuring up to your potential. Perhaps you know when you are doing your best work or earning the highest grades you possibly can. Chances are good that you may instruct, guide, train, or tutor certain types of individuals. Perhaps you choose to stay within your area of specialization, however. People may notice that you become more confident when you can share your knowledge or demonstrate your skills.
